Report on
Mentoring Program on entrepreneurship development for ED Cell Faculty coordinators
Organized by Entrepreneurship Development Cell on 15/09/2016
Venue: Conference Room @ 11:00 AM

Submitted by Dr. R. Varaprasad, Assistant Professor, Department of Management Studies and Coordinator Entrepreneurship Development Cell

Resource Person: Mr. Vikram Jit Misra, Regional Manager, NEN, Wadhvani Foundation, Hyderabad

The program commenced at 11:00 AM with welcome address and introduction of resource person by Dr. R. Varaprasad, Coordinator, ED Cell, Dr. Ramaprasada Rao, Dean IIIC was also present.

Mr. Misra elaborately discussed about the opportunities in bridging the skill gaps, international standardization in education sector & industry. He also stressed on the opportunities and challenges that are transforming lives of the masses due to globalisation. Talented and enterprising personalities are exploiting such opportunities translating them into business ventures.

The importance of ED Cell, will help the younger generation in changing their attitude and take up challenging growth oriented careers instead of waiting for wage employment, there is need to inculcate Entrepreneurial values during their early days of education.

He also opined that entrepreneurs are not necessarily born; they can be developed through well-conceived and well directed activities. He also shared that as higher education institutions have been grooming their students to aim big, think new and start business and Youngsters are being business oriented with innovative way, they can succeed by starting business units in their places itself without searching for jobs elsewhere.

He finally concluded by saying "hard work and sincerity cannot be replaced so one must strive towards putting in their best."

Entrepreneurship Development Cell extends sincere gratitude to the Management, Principal, Head of the Departments for their support.
