

MADANAPALLE INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY & SCIENCE

An Autonomous Institution

Report on

One day Workshop on Career Guidance for Engineering Graduates

Organized by MITS - IIIC Cell

8 December 2014

Submitted by: Dr. M. Sudhakar Reddy, I B.Tech Coordinator

"INNOVATION IS THE KEY FOR SUCCESS"

One day workshop on "Career Guidance for Engineering Graduates" conducted on 8, Dec, 2014 for all first year B.Tech students under TEQIP-II. The Resource Person was Sri. V.Phanikum, General Manager, NCS Corporation, Pondicherry, Tamilnadu, India.

Dr.G. Hampamma - Vice Principal, Dr.Ch. Rama Prasada Rao - Dean-IIIC, Dr.B. Rama Kumar- Autonomous Coordinator and Sri V. Phanikum - Resource Person honored the dais. The dignitaries emphasized the vision of MITS and Career of autonomous students.

The resource person's speech emphasized the following things:

- Relevance of content.
- Learning and adapting to change
- Developing and written and oral communication skills
- Working under pressure
- To learn to work effectively within groups
- In developing critical thinking skills
- Adaptability to use new technologies.
- Difference between Inventions and Innovations.
- Relation between innovation and industrial dynamics.
- Consumer competence and Innovative users.
- The knowledge base of innovative activities in industries.
- Collaborations in innovation and R&D networks.

He addressed the I B.Tech students in 3 different groups in 3 sessions from morning to evening.

Overall feedback from the students was found to be positive.